“This book captures your being, a magnificent giant oak tree in my mind, where I go for rest and rejuvenation, as I bask in the light of your knightly wisdom. You radiate the light of love through language, flooding my heart through an awakened mind. You express the lover’s silent pulsating passion such that one sighs and sinks into soulful ecstasy upon reading your poems. Ah, finally, someone understands what I feel and what love means to me.”

- Dominique, Appreciating Muse

“Your poetry speaks to my soul, leaving me feeling a well-needed oneness with my own erotic, personal, and usually untapped, sensual desires. You carry me to twilight moments where I sway in the lingered suspense between reality and my deepest fantasies. This book is a delightful gift for anyone you wish to invite to a deeper, soulful relationship.”

- Jewels, Kindred Soul & Friend

“It seems that amidst all the ugliness and inhumanity in the world, you have found a place that is sacred in its beauty and simplicity to share with the rest of us. Reading your poetry makes me believe that love - the glorious temptress that it is - full of sweetness and passion - can be touched and caressed to become part of me.”
